A Practical Study of 1 CORINTHIANS: Running to Win

“Handling the Hurdles That Can Hurt You”

PART III

STUDY NUMBER SEVENTEEN – 1 CORINTHIANS 12:12-31

NOTES

v. 12 For even as the body is one and is having many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body, so also is Christ.

v. 13 For indeed by means of one Spirit, we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Gentiles, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

v. 14 For indeed the body is not one member, but many.

v. 15 If the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I am not a part of the body,” it is not for this reason any the less a part of the body.

v. 16 And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I am not a part of the body,” it is not for this reason any the less a part of the body.

v. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?

v. 18 But now God placed the members each one of them, in the body, even as He desired.

v. 19 And if they were all one member, where would the body be?

v. 20 But now indeed there are many members, but one body.

v. 21 And the eye is not able to say to the hand, “I am not having need of you”; or again the head to the feet, “I am not having need of you.”

v. 22 On the contrary, it is much truer that those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary.

v. 23 And those members of the body which we are considering to be insignificant, on these we are bestowing more abundant honor, and our unrepresentable members are having greater presentability,

v. 24 whereas our presentable members are not having need. But God blended the body, having given more abundant honor to the member which lacked,
