Abraham

Study #1: Genesis 12:1-20

v. 1 The Lord had said to Abram, "Leave your country, your people and your father's household and go to the land I will show you."

v. 2 I will make you into a great nation and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing.

v. 3 I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you."

v. 4 So Abram left, as the Lord had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he set out from Haran.

v. 5 He took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, all the possessions they had accumulated and the people they had acquired in Haran, and they set out for the land of Canaan, and they arrived there.

v. 6 Abram traveled through the land as far as the site of the great tree of Moreh at Shechem. The Canaanites were then in the land.

v. 7 but the Lord appeared to Abram and said, "To your offspring I will give this land." So he built an altar there to the Lord, who had appeared to him.

v. 8 From there he went on toward the hills east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to the Lord and called on the name of the Lord.

v. 9 Then Abram set out and continued toward the Negev.

v. 10 Now there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to live there for a while because the famine was severe.

v. 11 As he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, "I know what a beautiful woman you are.

v. 12 When the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife.' Then they will kill me but will let you live.

v. 13 Say you are my sister, so that I will be treated well for your sake

v.12 When the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife.' Then they will kill me but will let you live.

v.13 Say you are my sister, so that I will be treated well for your sake and my life will be spared because of you.

v.14 When Abram came to Egypt, the Egyptians saw that she was a very beautiful woman.

v.15 (And when Pharaoh's officials saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh, and she was taken into his palace.

v.16 He treated Abram well for her sake, and Abram acquired sheep and cattle, male and female donkeys, menservants and maidservants, and camels.

v.17 But the Lord inflicted serious diseases on Pharaoh and his household because of Abram's wife Sarai.

v.18 So Pharaoh summoned Abram. "What have you done to me?" he said. "Why didn't you tell me she was your wife?" → probably Sarah!

v.19 Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her to be my wife? Now then, here is your wife. Take her and go!"

v.20 Then Pharaoh gave orders about Abram to his men, and they sent him on his way, with his wife and everything he had.

- v. 1 So Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, with his wife and everything he had, and Lot went with him.
- v. 2 Abram had become very wealthy in livestock and in silver and gold.
- v. 3 From the Negev he went from place to place until he came to Bethel, to the place between Bethel and Ai where his tent had been earlier.
- v. 4 and where he had first built an altar. There Abram called on the name of the Lord.
- v. 5 Now Lot, who was moving about with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents.
- v. 6 But the land could not support them while they stayed together, for their possessions were so great that they were not able to stay together.
- v. 7 And quarreling arose between Abram's herdsmen and the herdsmen of Lot. The Canaanites and Perizzites were also living in the land at that time.
- v. 8 So Abram said to Lot, "Let's not have any quarreling between you and me, or between your herdsmen and mine, for we are brothers.
- v. 9 Is not the whole land before you? Let's part company. If you go to v.10 Lot looked up and saw that the whole plain of the Jordan was well watered, like the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, toward Zoar. (This was before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.)

v.11 So Lot chose for himself the whole plain of the Jordan and set out toward the east. The two men parted company:

v.12 Abram lived in the land of Canaan, while Lot lived among the cities of the plain and pitched his tents near Sodom.

v.13 Now the men of Sodom were wicked and were sinning greatly against the Lord.

- v. 1 The Lord appeared to Abraham near the great trees of Mamre while he was sitting at the entrance to his tent in the heat of the day.
- v. 2 Abraham looked up and saw three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he hurried from the entrance of his tent to meet them and bowed low to the ground.
- v. 3 He said, "If I have found favor in your eyes, my lord, do not pass your servant by."
- v. 4 Let a little water be brought, and then you may all wash your feet and rest under this tree.
- v. 5 Let me get you something to eat, so you can be refreshed and then go on your way—now that you have come to your servant.
- "Very well," they answered, "do as you say."
- v. 6 So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah. "Quick," he said, "get three seahs of fine flour and knead it and bake some bread."
- v. 7 Then he ran to the herd and selected a choice, tender calf and gave it to a servant, who hurried to prepare it.
- v. 8 He then brought some curds and milk and the calf that had been prepared, and set these before them. While they ate, he stood near them under a tree.
- v. 9 "Where is your wife Sarah?" they asked him. "There, in the tent," he said. ^{#1} Question!
