24:v. 1 Abraham was now old and well advanced in years and the Lord had blessed him in every way.

v. 2 He said to the chief servant in his household, the one in charge of all that he had, "Put your hand under my thigh.

v. 3 I want you to swear by the Lord, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you will not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I am living,

v. 4 but will go to my country and my own relatives and get a wife for my son Isaac."

v. 5 The servant asked him, "What if the woman is unwilling to come back with me to this land? Shall I then take your son back to the country you came from?"

v. 6 "Make sure that you do not take my son back there," Abraham said.

v. 7 "The Lord, the God of heaven, who brought me out of my father's household and my native land and who spoke to me and promised me on oath, saying, 'To your offspring I will give this land'—he will send his angel before you so that you can get a wife for my son from there.

v. 8 If the woman is unwilling to come back with you, then you will be released from this oath of mine. Only do not take my son back there."

v. 9 So the servant put his hand under the thigh of his master Abraham and swore an oath to him concerning this matter.

v. 10 Then the servant took ten of his master's camels and left, taking with him all kinds of good things from his master. He set out for Aram Naharaim and made his way to the town of Nahor.

v. 11 He had the camels kneel down near the well outside the town; it was toward evening, the time the women go out to draw water.

v. 12 Then he prayed, "O Lord, God of my master Abraham, give me success today, and show kindness to my master Abraham.

v. 13 See, I am standing beside this spring, and the daughters of the townspeople are coming out to draw water.

v. 14 May it be that when I say to a girl, 'Please let down your jar that I may have a drink,' and she says, 'Drink, and I'll water your camels too'—let her be the one you have chosen for your servant Isaac. By this I will know that you have shown kindness to my master.

v. 15 Before he had finished praying, Rebekah came out with her jar on her shoulder. She was the daughter of Bethuel son of Milcah, who was the wife of Abraham's brother Nahor.

✓ v. 16 The girl was ¹very beautiful, ²a virgin; ³no man had ever lain with her. She went down to the spring, filled her jar and came up again.

✓ v. 17 The servant hurried to meet her and said, "Please give me a little water from your jar."

✓ v. 18 "Drink, my lord," she said, and quickly lowered the jar to her hands and gave him a drink.

✓ v. 19 After she had given him a drink, she said, "I'll draw water for your camels too, until they have finished drinking."

✓ v. 20 So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough, ran back to the well to draw more water, and drew enough for all his camels. → ✓ All Ten!

✓ v. 21 Without saying a word, the man watched her closely to learn whether or not the Lord had made his journey successful.

✓ v. 28 The girl ran and told her mother's household about these things.

✓ v. 29 Now Rebekah had a brother named Laban and he hurried out to the man at the spring.

✓ v. 30 As soon as he had seen the nose ring, and the bracelets on his sister's arms, and had heard Rebekah tell what the man said to her, he went out to the man and found him standing by the camels near the spring.

✓ v. 31 "Come, you who are blessed by the Lord," he said. "Why are you standing out here? I have prepared the house and a place for the camels."

✓ v. 32 So the man went to the house, and the camels were unloaded. Straw and fodder were brought for the camels, and water for him and his men to wash their feet.

✓ v. 33 Then food was set before him, but he said, "I will not eat until I have told you what I have to say." "Then tell us," [Laban] said.

Isaac & Jacob

Study #3: Genesis 25:19-34

- ✓ 25:v. 19 This is the account of Abraham's son Isaac. Abraham became the father of Isaac.
- ✓ v. 20 and Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddan Aram and sister of Laban the Aramean.
- ✓ v. 21 Isaac prayed to the Lord on behalf of his wife, because she was barren. The Lord answered his prayer, and his wife Rebekah became pregnant.
- ✓ v. 22 The babies jostled each other within her, and she said, "Why is this happening to me?" So she went to inquire of the Lord.
- ✓ v. 23 The Lord said to her, "Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples from within you will be separated; one people will be stronger than the other, and the older will serve the younger."
- ✓ v. 24 When the time came for her to give birth, there were twin boys in her womb.
- ✓ v. 25 The first to come out was red, and his whole body was like a hairy garment; so they named him Esau.
- ✓ v. 26 After this, his brother came out, with his hand grasping Esau's heel; so he was named Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when Rebekah gave birth to them.
- ✓ v. 27 The boys grew up, and Esau became a skillful hunter, a man of the open country, while Jacob was a quiet man, staying among the tents.
- ✓ v. 28 Isaac, who had a taste for wild game, loved Esau, but Rebekah loved Jacob.
- ✓ v. 29 Once when Jacob was cooking some stew, Esau came in from the open country, famished.
- ✓ v. 30 He said to Jacob, "Quick, let me have some of that red stew! I'm famished!" (That is why he was also called Edom.)
- ✓ v. 31 Jacob replied, "First sell me your birthright."
- ✓ v. 32 "Look, I am about to die," Esau said. "What good is the birthright to me?"
- ✓ v. 33 But Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore an oath to him, selling his birthright to Jacob.
- ✓ v. 34 Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and some lentil stew. He ate and drank, and then got up and left. So Esau despised his birthright.

✓ C.S. Lewis Quote!

✓ 26:v. 1 Now there was a famine in the land—besides the earlier famine of Abraham's time—and Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines in Gerar.

✓ Prov- 3:5

✓ v. 2 The Lord appeared to Isaac and said, "Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land where I tell you to live.

✓ v. 3 Stay in this land for a while and I will be with you and will bless you. For to you and your descendants I will give all these lands and will confirm the oath I swore to your father Abraham.

✓ v. 5 because Abraham obeyed me and kept my requirements, my commands, my decrees and my laws."

✓ v. 6 So Isaac stayed in Gerar.

✓ v. 7 When the men of that place asked him about his wife, he said, "She is my sister," because he was afraid to say, "She is my wife." He thought, "The men of this place might kill me on account of Rebekah because she is beautiful."

✓ Math 5:16

✓ v. 8 When Isaac had been there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked down from a window and saw Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah.

✓ v. 9 So Abimelech summoned Isaac and said, "She is really your wife! Why did you say, 'She is my sister?'" Isaac answered him, "Because I thought I might lose my life on account of her."

✓ v. 10 Then Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the men might well have slept with your wife and you would have brought guilt upon us."

✓ v. 11 So Abimelech gave orders to all the people: "Anyone who molests this man or his wife shall surely be put to death."

✓ Gal. 3:10
✓ Ps. 139:23, 24
✓ Is. 26:2, 3

✓ v. 12 Isaac planted crops in that land and the same year reaped a hundredfold, because the Lord blessed him.

✓ v. 13 The man became rich, and his wealth continued to grow until he became very wealthy.

✓ v. 14 He had so many flocks and herds and servants that the Philistines envied him.

✓ v. 15 So all the wells that his father's servants had dug in the time of his father Abraham, the Philistines stopped up, filling them with earth.

✓ v. 16 Then Abimelech said to Isaac, "Move away from us; you have become too powerful for us."

✓ v. 17 So Isaac moved away from there and encamped in the Valley of Gerar and settled there.

#1
 v. 18 Isaac reopened the wells that had been dug in the time of his father Abraham, which the Philistines had stopped up after Abraham died, and he gave them the same names his father had given them.

#2
 v. 19 Isaac's servants dug in the valley and discovered a well of fresh water there.

#3
 v. 20 But the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herdsmen and said, "The water is ours!" So he named the well Esek because they disputed with him.

#4
 v. 21 Then they dug another well, but they quarreled over that one also; so he named it Sitnah.

v. 22 He moved on from there and dug another well, and no one quarreled over it. He named it Rehoboth, saying, "Now the Lord has given us room and we will flourish in the land."

v. 23 From there he went up to Beersheba.

v. 24 That night the Lord appeared to him and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid, for I am with you; I will bless you and will increase the number of your descendants for the sake of my servant Abraham."

v. 25 Isaac built an altar there and called on the name of the Lord. There he pitched his tent, and there his servants dug a well.

v. 26 Meanwhile, Abimelech had come to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath his personal adviser and Phicol the commander of his forces.

v. 27 Isaac asked them, "Why have you come to me, since you were hostile to me and sent me away?" → Question!

v. 28 They answered, "We saw clearly that the Lord was with you; so we said, 'There ought to be a sworn agreement between us'— between us and you. Let us make a treaty with you

v. 30 Isaac then made a feast for them, and they ate and drank.

v. 31 Early the next morning the men swore an oath to each other. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they left him in peace. #5

v. 32 That day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well they had dug. They said, "We've found water!"

v. 33 He called it Shibah, and to this day the name of the town has been Beersheba.

v. 34 When Esau was forty years old, he married Judith daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and also Basemath daughter of Elon the Hittite.

v. 35 They were a source of grief to Isaac and Rebekah.

- ✓ v. 3 Now then, get your weapons—your quiver and bow—and go out to the open country to hunt some wild game for me.
- ✓ v. 4 Prepare me the kind of tasty food I like and bring it to me to eat, so that I may give you my blessing before I die. Prov. 16:3,9; Psalm 33:11
- ✓ v. 5 Now Rebekah was listening as Isaac spoke to his son Esau. When Esau left for the open country to hunt game and bring it back,
- ✓ v. 6 Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "Look, I overheard your father say to your brother Esau, I would do great things but I'm married to a Speed Bump"
- ✓ v. 7 Bring me some game and prepare me some tasty food to eat, so that I may give you my blessing in the presence of the Lord before I die. Result
- ✓ v. 8 Now, my son, listen carefully and do what I tell you:
- ✓ v. 9 Go out to the flock and bring me two choice young goats, so I can prepare some tasty food for your father, just the way he likes it.
- ✓ v. 10 Then take it to your father to eat, so that he may give you his blessing before he dies.

- ✓ v. 12 What if my father touches me? I would appear to be tricking him and would bring down a curse on myself rather than a blessing."
- ✓ v. 13 His mother said to him, "My son, let the curse fall on me. Just do what I say; go and get them for me."
- ✓ v. 14 So he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and she prepared some tasty food, just the way his father liked it.
- ✓ v. 15 Then Rebekah took the best clothes of Esau her older son, which she had in the house and put them on her younger son Jacob.
- ✓ v. 16 She also covered his hands and the smooth part of his neck with the goatskins.
- ✓ v. 17 Then she handed to her son Jacob the tasty food and the bread she had made.
- ✓ v. 18 He went to his father and said, "My father." "Yes, my son," he answered. "Who is it?" Question! #2
- ✓ v. 19 Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Please sit up and eat some of my game so that you may give me your blessing."
- ✓ v. 20 Isaac asked his son, "How did you find it so quickly, my son? Question! #3 The Lord your God gave me success," he replied.
- ✓ v. 21 Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Come near so I can touch you, my son, to know whether you really are my son Esau or not."
- ✓ v. 22 Jacob went close to his father Isaac, who touched him and said, "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau."
- ✓ v. 23 He did not recognize him, for his hands were hairy like those of his brother Esau; so he blessed him.
- ✓ v. 24 Are you really my son Esau? he asked. "I am," he replied. Question! #4

- ✓ v. 25 Then he said, "My son, bring me some of your game to eat, so that I may give you my blessing." Jacob brought it to him and he ate; and he brought some wine and he drank.
- ✓ v. 26 Then his father Isaac said to him, "Come here, my son, and kiss me."
- ✓ v. 27 So he went to him and kissed him. When Isaac caught the smell of his clothes, he blessed him and said, "Ah, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the Lord has blessed."
- ✓ v. 28 May God give you of heaven's dew and of earth's richness—an abundance of grain and new wine.
- ✓ v. 29 May nations serve you and peoples bow down to you. Be lord over your brothers, and may the sons of your mother bow down to you. May those who curse you be cursed and those who bless you be blessed."
- ✓ v. 30 After Isaac finished blessing him and Jacob had scarcely left his father's presence, his brother Esau came in from hunting.
- ✓ v. 31 He too prepared some tasty food and brought it to his father. Then he said to him, "My father, sit up and eat some of my game, so that you may give me your blessing."

Study #7: Genesis 29:1-35

29:v.1 Then Jacob continued on his journey and came to the land of the eastern peoples. ¹

v. 2 There he saw a well in the field, ² with three flocks of sheep lying near it because the flocks were watered from that well. The stone over the mouth of the well was large.

v. 3 When all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone away from the well's mouth and water the sheep. Then they would return the stone to its place over the mouth of the well.

v. 4 Jacob asked the shepherds, "My brothers, where are you from?" "We're from Haran," they replied. ^{Rebekah's Brother}

v. 5 He said to them, "Do you know Laban, Nahor's grandson?" "Yes, we know him," they answered. ^{Question!}

v. 6 Then Jacob asked them, "Is he well?" "Yes, he is," they said, and here comes his daughter Rachel with the sheep."

v. 7 "Look," he said, "the sun is still high; it is not time for the flocks to be gathered. Water the sheep and take them back to pasture."

v. 8 "We can't," they replied, "until all the flocks are gathered and the stone has been rolled away from the mouth of the well. Then we will water the sheep."

v. 9 While he was still talking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she was a shepherdess. ^{Reason}

v. 10 When Jacob saw Rachel daughter of Laban, his mother's brother, and Laban's sheep, he went over and rolled the stone away from the mouth of the well and watered his uncle's sheep.

v. 11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel and began to weep aloud.

v. 12 He had told Rachel that he was a relative of her father and a son of Rebekah. So she ran and told her father.

v. 13 As soon as Laban heard the news about Jacob, his sister's son, he hurried to meet him. He embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his home and there Jacob told him all these things.

v. 14 Then Laban said to him, "You are my own flesh and blood." After Jacob had stayed with him for a whole month,

v. 15 Laban said to him, "Just because you are a relative of mine, should you work for me for nothing? Tell me what your wages should be." ^{Question!}

v. 16 Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the older was Leah and the name of the younger was Rachel.

Kissed & weep

- v. 17 Leah had weak eyes, but Rachel was lovely in form and beautiful.
- v. 18 Jacob was in love with Rachel and said, "I'll work for you seven years in return for your younger daughter Rachel." Contract
- v. 19 Laban said, "It's better that I give her to you than to some other man. Stay here with me."
- v. 20 So Jacob served seven years to get Rachel but they seemed like only a few days to him because of his love for her.
- v. 21 Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife. My time is completed and I want to lie with her."
- v. 22 So Laban brought together all the people of the place and gave a feast.
- v. 23 But when evening came, he took his daughter Leah and gave her to Jacob and Jacob lay with her.
- v. 24 And Laban gave his servant girl Zilpah to his daughter as her maidservant.
- v. 25 When morning came, there was Leah! So Jacob said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? I served you for Rachel, didn't I? Why have you deceived me?" Question!
- v. 26 Laban replied, "It is not our custom here to give the younger daughter in marriage before the older one."
- v. 27 Finish this daughter's bridal week; then we will give you the younger one also, in return for another seven years of work."
- v. 28 And Jacob did so. He finished the week with Leah, and then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel to be his wife.
- v. 29 Laban gave his servant girl Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her maidservant.
- v. 30 Jacob lay with Rachel also, and he loved Rachel more than Leah. And he worked for Laban another seven years.
- v. 31 When the Lord saw that Leah was not loved, he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren.
- v. 32 Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Reuben, for she said, "It is because the Lord has seen my misery. Surely my husband will love me now." ①
- v. 33 She conceived again, and when she gave birth to a son she said, "Because the Lord heard that I am not loved, he gave me this one too." So she named him Simeon. ②
- v. 34 Again she conceived, and when she gave birth to a son she said, "Now at last my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons." So he was named Levi. ③
- v. 35 She conceived again, and when she gave birth to a son she said, "This time I will praise the Lord." So she named him Judah. ④
Then she stopped having children.

30:v. 1 When Rachel saw that she was not bearing Jacob any children, she became jealous of her sister. So she said to Jacob, "Give me children, or I'll die!"

v. 2 Jacob became angry with her and said, "Am I in the place of God, who has kept you from having children?" QUESTION!

v. 3 Then she said, "Here is Bilhah, my maidservant. Sleep with her so that she can bear children for me and that through her I too can build a family."

v. 4 So she gave him her servant Bilhah as a wife. Jacob slept with her,

v. 5 and she became pregnant and bore him a son.

v. 6 Then Rachel said, "God has vindicated me; he has listened to my plea and given me a son." Because of this she named him Dan. #5

v. 7 Rachel's servant Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.

v. 8 Then Rachel said, "I have had a great struggle with my sister and I have won" So she named him Naphtali. #6

v. 9 When Leah saw that she had stopped having children, she took her maidservant Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife.

v. 10 Leah's servant Zilpah bore Jacob a son.

v. 11 Then Leah said, "What good fortune!" So she named him Gad. #7

v. 12 Leah's servant Zilpah bore Jacob a second son.

v. 13 Then Leah said, "How happy I am! The women will call me happy." So she named him Asher. #8

v. 14 During wheat harvest, Reuben went out into the fields and found some mandrake plants, which he brought to his mother Leah. Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes."

v. 15 But she said to her, "Wasn't it enough that you took away my husband? Will you take my son's mandrakes too?" "Very well," Rachel said, "he can sleep with you tonight in return for your son's mandrakes." QUESTION!

v. 16 So when Jacob came in from the fields that evening, Leah went out to meet him. "You must sleep with me," she said. "I have hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he slept with her that night.

v. 17 God listened to Leah, and she became pregnant and bore Jacob a fifth son.

v. 18 Then Leah said, "God has rewarded me for giving my maidservant to my husband." So she named him Issachar. #9

v. 19 Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son.

v. 20 Then Leah said, "God has presented me with a precious gift. This time my husband will treat me with honor, because I have borne him six sons." So she named him Zebulun. #10

v. 21 Some time later she gave birth to a daughter and named her Dinah. #11

v. 22 Then God remembered Rachel; he listened to her and opened her womb.

v. 23 She became pregnant and gave birth to a son and said, "God has taken away my disgrace."

v. 24 She named him Joseph and said, "May the Lord add to me another son." #12

- ✓ v. 31 "What shall I give you?" he asked. "Don't give me anything," Jacob replied. "But if you will do this one thing for me, I will go on tending your flocks and watching over them:
- ✓ v. 32 Let me go through all your flocks today and remove from them every speckled or spotted sheep, every dark-colored lamb and every spotted or speckled goat. They will be my wages.
- ✓ v. 33 And my honesty will testify for me in the future, whenever you check on the wages you have paid me. Any goat in my possession that is not speckled or spotted, or any lamb that is not dark-colored, will be considered stolen."

- ✓ v. 40 Jacob set apart the young of the flock by themselves, but made the rest face the streaked and dark-colored animals that belonged to Laban. Thus he made separate flocks for himself and did not put them with Laban's animals.
- ✓ v. 41 Whenever the stronger females were in heat, Jacob would place the branches in the troughs in front of the animals so they would mate near the branches,
- ✓ v. 42 but if the animals were weak, he would not place them there. So the weak animals went to Laban and the strong ones to Jacob.
- ✓ v. 43 In this way the man grew exceedingly prosperous, and came to own large flocks, and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and donkeys.

- ✓ v. 30 Now you have gone off because you longed to return to your father's house. But why did you steal my gods?" → Question!

- v. 31 Jacob answered Laban, "I was afraid, because I thought you would take your daughters away from me by force."
- v. 32 But if you find anyone who has your gods, he shall not live. In the presence of our relatives, see for yourself whether there is anything of yours here with me; and if so, take it." Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen the gods.
- v. 33 So Laban went into Jacob's tent and into Leah's tent and into the tent of the two maidservants, but he found nothing. After he came out of Leah's tent, he entered Rachel's tent.
- v. 34 Now Rachel had taken the household gods and put them inside her camel's saddle and was sitting on them. Laban searched through everything in the tent but found nothing.
- v. 35 Rachel said to her father, "Don't be angry, my lord, that I cannot stand up in your presence; I'm having my period." So he searched but could not find the household gods.
- v. 36 Jacob was angry and took Laban to task. "What is my crime?" he asked Laban. "What sin have I committed that you hunt me down?"
- v. 37 Now that you have searched through all my goods, what have you found that belongs to your household? Put it here in front of your relatives and mine, and let them judge between the two of us.
- v. 38 "I have been with you for twenty years now. Your sheep and goats have not miscarried, nor have I eaten rams from your flocks.
- v. 39 I did not bring you animals torn by wild beasts; I bore the loss myself. And you demanded payment from me for whatever was stolen by day or night.
- v. 40 This was my situation: The heat consumed me in the daytime and the cold at night, and sleep fled from my eyes.
- v. 41 It was like this for the twenty years I was in your household. I worked for you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flocks, and you changed my wages ten times.
- v. 42 If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, you would surely have sent me away empty-handed. But God has seen my hardship and the toil of my hands, and last night he rebuked you." Gen. 28:15
- v. 43 Laban answered Jacob, "The women are my daughters, the children are my children, and the flocks are my flocks. All you see is mine. Yet what can I do today about these daughters of mine, or about the children they have borne?"
- v. 44 Come now, let's make a covenant, you and I, and let it serve as a witness between us."
- v. 45 So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.
- v. 46 He said to his relatives, "Gather some stones." So they took stones and piled them in a heap, and they ate there by the heap.
- v. 47 Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha, and Jacob called it Galeed.
- v. 48 Laban said, "This heap is a witness between you and me today." That is why it was called Galeed.
- v. 49 It was also called Mizpah, because he said, "May the Lord keep watch between you and me when we are away from each other."
- v. 50 If you mistreat my daughters or if you take any wives besides my daughters, even though no one is with us, remember that God is a witness between you and me."
- v. 51 Laban also said to Jacob, "Here is this heap and here is this pillar I have set up between you and me.
- v. 52 This heap is a witness, and this pillar is a witness, that I will not go past this heap to your side to harm you and that you will not go past this heap and pillar to my side to harm me.
- v. 53 May the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us." So Jacob took an oath in the name of the Fear of his father Isaac.
- v. 54 He offered a sacrifice there in the hill country and invited his relatives to a meal. After they had eaten, they spent the night there.
- v. 55 Early the next morning Laban kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them. Then he left and returned home.

32:v. 1 Jacob also went on his way and the angels of God met him.

v. 2 When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is the camp of God!" So he named that place Mahanaim.

v. 3 Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

v. 4 He instructed them: "This is what you are to say to my master Esau: 'Your servant Jacob says, I have been staying with Laban and have remained there till now.'

v. 5 I have cattle and donkeys, sheep and goats, menservants and maidservants. Now I am sending this message to my lord, that I may find favor in your eyes."

v. 6 When the messengers returned to Jacob, they said, "We went to your brother Esau, and now he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him."

v. 7 In great fear and distress, Jacob divided the people who were with him into two groups, and the flocks and herds and camels as well.

v. 8 He thought, "If Esau comes and attacks one group, the group that is left may escape."

v. 9 Then Jacob prayed, "O God of my father Abraham, God of my father Isaac, O Lord, who said to me, 'Go back to your country and your relatives, and I will make you prosper,'

v. 10 I am unworthy of all the kindness and faithfulness you have shown your servant. I had only my staff when I crossed this Jordan, but now I have become two groups.

v. 11 Save me, I pray, from the hand of my brother Esau, for I am afraid he will come and attack me, and also the mothers with their children.

v. 12 But you have said, 'I will surely make you prosper and will make your descendants like the sand of the sea, which cannot be counted.'

v. 13 He spent the night there, and from what he had with him he selected a gift for his brother Esau:

v. 14 two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

v. 15 thirty female camels with their young, forty cows and ten bulls, and twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys.

v. 16 He put them in the care of his servants, each herd by itself, and said to his servants, "Go ahead of me, and keep some space between the herds."

v. 17 He instructed the one in the lead: "When my brother Esau meets you and asks, 'To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and who owns all these animals in front of you?' → Question!"

v. 18 then you are to say, "They belong to your servant Jacob. They are a gift sent to my lord Esau, and he is coming behind us."

v. 19 He also instructed the second, the third and all the others who followed the herds: "You are to say the same thing to Esau when you meet him."

v. 20 And be sure to say, "Your servant Jacob is coming behind us." For he thought, "I will pacify him with these gifts I am sending on ahead; later, when I see him, perhaps he will receive me."

v. 21 So Jacob's gifts went on ahead of him, but he himself spent the night in the camp.

#7 v. 22 That night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maidservants and his eleven sons and crossed the ford of the Jabbok.

v. 23 After he had sent them across the stream, he sent over all his possessions.
